2013-2014 ACTIVITIES
UW-Madison Retirement Association

Luncheons
10-14-13 Patricia Flatley Brennan, “Envisioning the Future of Health @ Home”
11-13-13 Ted DeDee, “Looking Forward to the Next Ten Years at Overture”
3-26-14 Francis Halzen, “Ice Fishing for Neutrinos”
5-6-14 Jerry Apps, “You’re Going to College? Why?”

Preluncheon Programs
10-14-13 Young Shakespeare Players, excerpts from “Hamlet”
11-13-13 Michael Connors, “Digital Printmaking”
5-6-14 Marc Fink, “The Oboe Revealed”

Day Trips
9-24-13 Bus trip to Rockford’s Anderson Japanese Gardens and Midway Village Museum
10-17-13 Bus trip to Warrens’ Wetherby Cranberry Farm and Wisconsin Cranberry Discovery Center
1-30-14 In-town tour of School of Veterinary Medicine
4-16-14 Bus trip to Milwaukee’s Harley-Davidson Museum and Mitchell Park Domes

Activities
1-15-14 “Shifting Gears at Retirement”

Retirement Challenges Seminars
10-22-13 Pamela Herd, “Class of ‘57 Study”
4-22-14 Alan Lukazewski, “The Overmedicating of Older Adults in America: A Public Health Epidemic”
4-29-14 Neil Binkley, “Preventing Fractures to Retain Quality of Life with Aging”

Financial Issues Seminars
11-25-13 Phil Harris, “2013 Personal Income Tax Revisions”
12-11-13 Steve Rick, “U.S. Economic Outlook”
1-16-14 Robert McCalla, “Long-Term Care Needs in Retirement: Option, Choices, Challenges”
2-18-14 Ann Albert and Brenda Haskins, “Aging at Home”
3-18-14 Tom Buresh and Michael Tomaw, “What Sort of Financial Planner, Broker, or Accountant Serves Your Best Interest?”
4-15-14 Bob Conlin and Michael Williamson, “ETF and SWIB Update”
5-20-14 Christine Benz, “Making Your Money Last in Retirement”

Electronic Technology Seminars
12-11-13 Explore the Madison Public Library—in person and online
4-23-14 Division of Information Technology Staff, “What Can DoIT Still Do For Me?”

Breakfasts 9-23-13, 11-19-13, 12-12-13, 1-9-14, 2-20-14, 3-17-14, 4-14-14, 5-15-14, 6-10-14